

Sui Ling Cheah

EXECUTIVE BOARD CHAIR

Sui Ling is a venture capitalist and an experienced independent board director. Aside from her role at ecoSPIRITS, she is Operating Partner at Wavemaker Partners, a leading early stage venture capital fund investing in B2B, deep tech and impact driven startups across ASEAN. Her role at Wavemaker is primarily to advise selected startups on business development, fundraising strategies and exits. In addition, she holds independent board positions in several publicly listed companies in industries including hospitality, healthcare and telecommunications.

Prior to her foray into tech investing, Sui Ling spent approximately 20 years in the investment banking industry primarily helping corporate clients raise capital in the public markets and working on cross border M&A. Her universe of clients included sovereign wealth funds, large multinationals and high growth corporates globally.

Her career spanned New York City, London, Los Angeles, Hong Kong and Singapore where she worked for Merrill Lynch, JPMorgan and BNP Paribas. Prior to exiting the banking industry, she was most recently Co-Head of South East Asia for Corporate Finance at BNP Paribas.

ecoSPIRITS™

BIO

Sui Ling holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and French Literature from Wellesley College, Massachusetts. She is currently learning Mandarin and pursuing an Executive MBA from Tsinghua University.

